Vienna, January 31. N. S.

YEsterday the Emperor held a great Council, to which all the Privy-Councellors were Summon'd. Some Days ago a Fire broke out in Mayence Houſe, which is not far from the Imperial Palace, but by the Care that was taken, it was extinguiſh'd before it ſpread to the adjoining Houſes. Baron Sickingen arrived here on the 28th from Tirol, and ſeveral other Generals are expected in a few Days. We have received Advice from Poland, that the Conſtable of Caminiec has defeated a Detachment of Coſſacks near Nimirow. The Ruſſian Troops continued their march with great Diligence towards Petersbourg. The Saxons were entred into the Territories of Dantzick, in order to raiſe Contributions there, as they have done at Thorn, which is to pay them Twenty thouſand Florins.

Copenhagen, February 3. N. S. We have received Advice from Stockholm of the 27th paſt, that the Members of the ſeveral Committees of the States were under an Oath of Secreſy, by which means there could be no certain Account of any thing that was tranſacted till their Reſolutions came to be laid before the whole Aſſembly. It was ſuppoſed the Method of raiſing Twelve thouſand Men would be ſetled that Day, the whole Army, with this addition, being to conſiſt of Forty thouſand, and to be ready by the 25th of next Month. The next Point which it was thought would be taken into Conſideration, was to find out Ways and Means to raiſe a Supply for the Service of this Year, and particularly for fitting out the Fleet. The ſame Letters add, that an Expreſs was ſent to General Ducker, to deſire he would come and take upon him the Command of the Army, but it was doubted whether he would venture to leave the Poſt he is in at preſent, without an Order from the King. We have received Advice from Findland, that the Muſcovite Army was retired from Abo, with a Deſign, as was ſuppoſed, to make themſelves Maſters of the Iſle of Oland, ſituate at the Mouth of the Bothnick Gulf, and by that means to ſtreighten the City of Stockholm for want of Proviſions, which are chiefly brought thither by Boats, that muſt neceſſarily paſs by in Sight of that Iſland.

Dublin, February 6. This being Her Majeſty's Birth-day, was obſerv'd here with great Solemnity. There was a Conſort of Muſick at the Caſtle, where his Grace the Lord Lieutenant made an Entertainment for ſeveral Perſons of Quality, who afterwards accompanied him to the Play, and from thence to a Firework on the River. There were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other demonſtrations of Joy throughout the whole City upon this occaſion.

Deal, February 14. The following Ships are now in the Downs, the St. George bound for the Eaſt Indies, the Baily, Carter Frigat, Betty, Spotſwood, York Merchant, Concord, and the Suſannah and Rebecca for Virginia; the Loyal Jane, Anne Gally, Guilford, and the John and Samuel for Jamaica; the Harriſon for Carolina; the Speedwell, Jeremiah and Anne, Crown, Robert and Edward, Benjamin and Mary, London, Hopewell and the Laſſells for Barbadoes; the Prince of Hanover for Guinea; the Roſe Gally, George and Queen Anne for Madera; the Duke of Cambridge for New England; the Richard and John for the Weſt Indies; the Prince George and the Jane for Leghorn; the Samuel and the Anne for Nevis; the Union, Blenheim, Chriſtian, St. Martin, and the Margaret for St. Ubes; the Recovery and the Laura for Ireland; the Sampſon and the Neptune for the Iſle of May; the Scandaroon for Lisbon; the Union for Seville, the Hopewell, New Hopewell, and the Bridget for Antegoa; the Salamander for Cork; the Sparrow for Malaga; the William and Anne, and the Oporto Gally for Oporto; the John and Thomas for Cadiz; the Kent for the Streights; the Endeavour for Dublin; the Friendſhip for Bourdeaux, and the Lambert for St. Chriſtophers.
